- This week may have been our most fantastic week yet as a whole!
Students are awarded with many soaring eagle tickets for positive behavior AND for turning in homework! This week we received enough compliments "Smilies" to fill our door.
Next week we will plan on a Celebration:)
- Don't forget to make your conference appointment online! Directions were sent home in a note.
- Thank you for volunteering to help in and out of the classroom-- I will be getting together things soon. Thank you to Kimberly Quintero for putting together our book orders!

We are scientists now! Ask me what an OBSERVATION is!

We have had so much fun this week continuing to learn about sound:

- Quiz your student, ask them about
